(2) 5) The Market Bye-laws and the Bye-laws for registration of Marriages have been sent up together for sanction by the D-C Mysore. The two Bye-laws are separated for purpose of convenience while working up the case. It is stated in the letter dated 11-6-48 that Prescribed formalities have been observed and that no objections have been received to the introduction of the both the Bye-laws. Hence it may not be necessary to enquire as required at Para 4 above and it is for orders

By 24/10/50 6) A draft, G.O. sanctioning the Bye Laws is put up

7) May be placed on the file. Concurrence of the Legislative Dept (I & Secy) I Secy 25/10/50

8) Law Secretary may favour us with his concurrence to the introduction of such bye-laws for Municipalities

9) The draft Bye-laws seem to require administrative scrutiny and remarks in the first instance legal scrutiny, if necessary

3h) The Mysore Town Municipalities Bill now before the Legislative Assembly, which was also considered by the Select Committee of the House, does not contain provision for making bye laws for registration of marriages Hence it is perhaps inappropriate to make bye-laws for this purpose at present as they will become inoperative very soon when the new Act comes into force This aspect may also be considered by the Administration
